

HASKELL IS COMING

Everybody who can should join the reception committee Tuesday morning and go to Stratford to meet the governor, who speaks there before he comes to Ada. If you can't do this, do not fail to get close to the chief when he arrives, for he is the warmest and the most attractive speaker that ever visited our city. He always tells you something, and since the opportunity to hear a real governor, comes to us very seldom, every man, woman and child in Ada should take part in the reception upon his arrival.

Should the weather command a shelter for the immense throng who will greet the governor, the Airdome will be used, but should the weather permit, seats and platform will be erected at some convenient point on the street.

The band will accompany the committee to Stratford, and when this, the best band in Oklahoma, heads the parade from the Oklahoma Central crossing upon the arrival of the chief executive, there will be great doings in progress.

The Bryan-Kern club will meet tonight to perfect arrangements for the reception, etc., and a full attendance of democrats is urged by Chairman Ebey of the club.

The train leaves for Stratford at 10:32, and you should be ready by ten o'clock to take the cab for the crossing.

Meet the Governor.

Let every one who can join the band down to Stratford tomorrow morning and return with the governor on the special train.

Chairman Joe Thompson invites

all to meet the governor at Stratford and take the special train back.

Chief Justice Bob and Associate Justice Sam.

All who wouldn't mind joining the crowd going down to meet the governor, phone or call on Chairman Ebey of the reception committee. Besides the governor, there will be several distinguished Oklahomans in the party, some of whom include the more important state officers. It is stated that Chief Justice Bob Williams and Associate Justice Sam Hays will be along. Let everyone help make tomorrow a gala day for democracy.

Dismiss School.

The school directors and the superintendent of city schools have been requested by the committee an arrangement to so arrange the school session tomorrow so as to permit all the school children to hear the governor.

The presence of Ada's 1200 school children might remind the governor that Ada is a candidate for a state normal.

Notice.

All the old Confederate Veterans in Ada and who will be in from the country tomorrow on the occasion of the governor's address, are requested to meet at the Confederate Veterans' hall on Broadway at 4 o'clock when they will prepare to march in a body to meet the governor. By the order of the commandant.

Haskell Day.

The Haskell Day committees are very desirous that Judge West, if he deems it consistent, adjourn court tomorrow that all may go to meet the governor.

ENDS IN A WHIRL

New York, Oct. 25.—The political campaign, which is about to center upon its last week, is to have a real whirlwind finish. From the highest to the lowest, all the spellbinders of all the parties will be out in force during the next six days and wavering voters will be urged by eloquent advocates of the several causes to cast their ballots "right."

Real Fight in New York.

In practically every state of the union rallies and mass meetings almost without number have been arranged, but it is in New York, with its large number of electoral votes at stake, that the real battle will be waged. There practically all the leading candidates will concentrate their efforts, ably assisted by a large number of the country's most forceful and resourceful campaigners.

To Ohio for Mr. Taft.

Ohio and Indiana will be given attention, particularly by the leading parties. Among the speakers who will urge the voters of Ohio to vote for Mr. Taft will be several members of President Roosevelt's cabinet. Secretaries Root and Garfield, Postmaster General Meyer and the presidential candidate himself will deliver two formal addresses in Cleveland and Youngstown tomorrow. Vice President Fairbanks will head the republican forces in Indiana, which will include Senators Beveridge and Hemenway, Edward H. Ozmun, Consul General of the United States at Constantinople; John L. Griffin, Consul at Liverpool and Representative Gardner of Michigan.

William J. Bryan, after four days in New York state, will close his long, hard campaign by a series of speeches in Ohio, Illinois and Indiana.

Big Ones in New York.

Both Mr. Taft and Mr. Bryan were in this city tonight. All the forces the democratic national committee can summon will be brought to bear to secure the electoral vote of New York state for Bryan. Led by the presidential candidate himself, an army of speakers will be sent into every county and town to spread democratic doctrine and appeal for votes for the ticket. Mr. Bryan went to the cities and towns in the southern tier yesterday, and after a two days' campaign in the Greater City he will stump cities and towns fringing the east shore of the Hudson river, which are seldom visited by democratic candidates in search of support.

Plan Democratic Rallies.

The democratic campaign in the state, it is planned by the party managers, will receive its impetus from the meetings here tomorrow night at Madison Square Garden and in Brooklyn Tuesday. Besides these meetings, many others, at which Mr. Bryan will speak, have been arranged in different parts of the city. Tammany Hall has planned to make the Madison Square Garden meeting the greatest demonstration given the candidate in this campaign, and red fire will burn, bands will play and every assembly district on Manhattan Island will be lively tomorrow night. Tomorrow morning Mr. Bryan will visit cities and towns in the near vicinity of New York, after a flying visit to Paterson, N. Y. Tuesday will be spent in Brooklyn and Wednesday he will turn to the up-state counties.

Following a meeting in Syracuse Thursday night Mr. Bryan will leave the Empire state to devote the closing days of the campaign to Ohio, Indiana and Illinois. Meanwhile all the prominent campaigners the state and national committee can enlist have been sent to the sixty-one counties of this state and to the doubtful states of the Middle West.

Prominent Speakers.

Among the leading speakers in New York state for the week will be former Judge Alton B. Parker, John Sharp Williams, Senator Bacon of Georgia, Gov. Hoke Smith of Georgia, Gov. Ansel of South Carolina, Gov. J. H. Higgins of Rhode Island.

The republican wind-up of the campaign in New York calls for twenty-two mass meetings, to be addressed by speakers of national reputation, a parade of the republican clubs of Greater New York and a big parade of the business men's association.

The big republican event of the week will be the Madison Square Garden meeting Wednesday night, at which Mr. Taft and Gov. Hughes will be the principal speakers. The other speakers will be Senator William Alden Smith of Michigan, Geo. A. Knight of California and United States Assistant District Attorney Atwood of Chicago. Gen. Horace Porter will preside. Mr. Taft and Gov. Hughes will also address four noonday meetings on Wednesday.

GINNERS REFUSED DEMAND.

Arkansas Intimidators Ignored and They Desist.

Little Rock, Ark., Oct. 25.—A special to the Gazette from Charleston, Ark., says:

According to the reports received here today, the owner of a cotton gin at Branch was ordered yesterday to close down by several men who walked into the gin unmasked and in broad daylight. Four miles north of Branch, Pendergrass and Watson were ordered to close their gins, but the ginners absolutely refused to obey.

They were so firm in their notions of running the gins despite the "night riders," or "day walkers" or whatever the men call themselves, that they afterwards received messages that they could continue running their gins. The ginners who, it is alleged, were ordered to close down say the messengers gained the night riders nothing, as they had not stopped and did not intend to stop their gins at their order.

Other places near here report visits of men to the gins. They made no attempt to conceal their identity.

Democrats Meet Tonight.

For the purpose of arranging for the reception and address of Gov. Haskell on Tuesday afternoon, the democrats are urged to meet at the court room tonight. Do not ignore this call, for you are needed.

We have sold goods in Ada six years, but we don't ask you to trade with us for the reason we do business in Ada or because we are friends. Neither do we send you prices and descriptions and insist on your sending us the money without personal inspection of our goods, as catalogue houses do, but ask for your trade on the broad ground of good, reliable goods, sold at fair prices and easy terms, with the fact made prominent that we carry a good reliable stock.

We call special attention to our Rockers shipped direct from the factory; no middle man's profit. They are selling fast. Six Upholster Rockers went out Friday and Saturday. We placed rush orders today to supply the demand. When you are in our store, ask to see our Iron Beds, especially a Vernis Martin, two inch post for $16.00. We solicit your inspection of our stock.

Many thanks for your handsome compliment.

The cotton crop in this section is considerably shorter than anticipated, consequently it is important to take your cotton to the market where the highest price can be realized. This is Ada, of course, because there are several buyers to compete, both local and foreign, while the compress is here, thereby saving the additional freight and handling to bring the cotton here to be compressed.

OUR DISTRICT COURT

The important, special term of the Pontotoc county district court opened this morning with his honor, Judge West, presiding.

Judge West, being notably popular in this county, and all remembering this morning that since he was previously here, long continued and almost critical illness had afflicted him, there was plainly evident at the court opening among attorneys, attending jurors, witnesses and spectators, a friendly regard for the fact that Judge West was again in good health and on his resumption of the bench in this county was possessed of his past uniform, tactful, courteous and pleasant disposition and attention to the business which was coming before him.

When the grand jury was called this morning, an unusual number of the panel were present. Prof. H. D. Rives of Frisco, was excused on account of being engaged in teaching. G. D. Patterson of Allen was excused on account of illness of wife. Messrs. Cobb and Mays, prominent farmers and cattlemen of south Pontotoc, plead vigorously with the court to relieve them from jury service on account of the importance of their business. One of these gentlemen had 500 cattle running around loose, of which about 30 were pestered with screw worms. The other cattleman was in about as bad fix and had arranged to make a shipment to market within a few days.

It was plainly evident that the court wanted to excuse both of these gentlemen, but it appeared that he was very loath to lose such good timber from the jury list and therefore, excused one on the agreement that he would look after the other's interests while he remained in court in behalf of his country. The Messrs. Gillespie, Lillard and Sutton were transferred from the grand jury panel to the petit jury panel. Uncle Pleas Roberts, of Beebe, was appointed foreman of jury, after which the veteran district clerk, W. C. Cox, with his accustomed impressiveness, swore in the foreman and the jury.

The judge's charge to the jury was interesting. He stated in substance: "Wherein it is the law that criminal offences through information issued by the county attorney, still since we have for a long time been governed by the grand jury system and since it is within your prerogative, I desire that you vigorously examine into all alleged law infringements. You may understand, however, that this recommendation means no encouragement for continued session, for we want to economize all possible, in all required court expenditures." The court further stated, in substance: "It is this court's desire to render full justice and on no account to be a party to the punishment of an innocent defendant, and we would prefer that the grand jury and the petit jury be so regardful; however, it is true that very few innocent men indeed are ever punished through process of court under our jurisdiction."

"I am very glad to state that I am informed that through the diligence of your county officers, especially your county attorney, you have about stamped out the sale of intoxicating liquors in this county. Though it is desired that you look into any information that may come into your hands in regard to the sale of intoxicating liquors, still I would say to you that considering the diligence of your local officers and the general prohibition enforcement in this county, that you should by no means resolve yourselves into a detective agency in pursuit of violators of the prohibition law."

The court remarked that it was his duty made so by the statute, to also call the jury's attention to the crime of gambling. Said he in substance:

"I do not know whether this county is infested with gamblers. It is usually difficult to successfully intercept those engaged in gambling, for they usually seek private and out-of-the-way places, and walk with a short tread, being careful always to keep the curtains down low, that is," said the judge, "I have heard that this is the manner and method of the conduct of the gamblers, of course I do not really know." If there were any covert smiles when the judge had concluded his gambling charge, the reporter declares that such was not visible to the naked eye.

The court in very delicate, but positive manner, told the jury that it was the duty and ambition of every good citizen of the county to see that the laws were enforced. Said he in substance: "You need the best citizenship to prevail. You want to know when you leave your home

Cough Caution

Never, positively never poison your lungs. If you cough—even from a simple cold—you should always heal, soothe, and ease the irritated bronchial tubes. Don't blindly suppress it with a stupefying poison. It's strange how some things finally come about. For twenty years Dr. Shoop has constantly warned people not to take cough mixtures or prescriptions containing Opium, Chloroform, or similar poisons. And now—a little late though—Congress says "Put it on the label, if poisons are in your Cough Mixture." Good! Very good! Hereafter for this very reason, mothers, and others, should insist on having Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. No poison marks on Dr. Shoop's labels—and none in the medicine, else it must by law be on the label. And it's not only safe, but it is said to be by those that know it best, a truly remarkable cough remedy. Take no chance then, particularly with your children. Insist on having Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. Compare carefully the Dr. Shoop package with others and note the difference. No poison marks there! You can always be on the safe side by demanding

TO DEMOCRATS IMPORTANT

To the Democratic Executive Committee, Pontotoc County:

You are requested that each of you get together the trusted democrats of your precinct for the purpose of devising methods for getting out a full democratic vote on election day. Recognizing the utter futility of attempting to secure a meeting of the committee of this county on such short notice, I have availed myself of the courtesy of the daily press of the city to issue this appeal to each one of you to take up this matter in your own voting precincts and do all you can to get a full democrat vote out on Nov. 3. It is important that you do your full duty to your party in this matter.

You will please send the vote of your precinct to me by wire or phone if possible as soon as counted. I trust all democrats will lend their aid to the good work.

Sincerely, Yours,
GEO. THOMPSON,
Chairman Pontotoc County Democratic Executive Committee.

J. W. Collins Preaches.

Rev. J. W. Collins, a good preacher, as well as a good business man, filled two pulpits in the city Sunday. In the morning at the Second church, and in the evening at the First Baptist church. We cannot say much about his first sermon, for we were not present, but concerning the message in the evening on this side, words of praise can only be said. His theme was "The Perils of the Church in This Generation." The three perils discussed at length were: The filling of the churches with unsaved people, caused by sensational preaching, the lack of doctrinal preaching, and the lack of church discipline.

The congregation was reasonably large, and the hearing splendid. In the introduction, the preacher expressed his interest in the Ada church, and told that he drove the first stake which marked the lot where the church now stands, that he planned the house and helped build it. Why not the interest?

A number of paragraphs on the daily papers are commencing to ask what the women have done with their hips. We should think that there would be plenty of room on the top shelf of the closet where they could be left until needed again.—Ardmoreite.

SENSATIONAL CHARGES MADE

Guthrie, Okla., Oct. 24.—The political sensation of the Oklahoma campaign was sprung today by Governor Haskell when, in a speech here, he exhibited the affidavit of T. E. Smith, a wealthy Ponca City cattleman, who swore that Congressman McGuire, the republican candidate for re-election, had been paid $3,000 for securing a reduction of the taxes of Smith and other cattlemen, and that he had received $1,800 for lobbying in the territorial legislature to prevent the removal of the quarantine line.

It is thought, that beyond doubt, this disclosure will defeat McGuire, who already has about all the fight on his hands he can handle.

In the audience were Chairman Norris and Secretary House, of the republican state committee. The governor fearlessly flayed the committee, calling House a liar and attacking the committee for its dishonest methods of campaigning. Frank Greer was also in the crowd and the governor turned his batteries on him, telling of his depravity in connection with the territorial printing. He also attacked Judge Burford.

Haskell and party left tonight for Oklahoma City, leaving there tomorrow for Eldorado, to make a special tour across the state.

BRYAN IS HOPEFUL

New York, Oct. 25.—After a week of hard campaigning, William J. Bryan, democratic candidate for president, rested today in this city. The candidate had breakfast in his private car as it was dashing through New Jersey and arrived at 9:15 a. m., at Jersey City, where he was met by National Chairman Mack and Nathaniel Straus.

Almost immediately the party crossed the ferry to New York and Mr. Bryan was driven to the residence of Mr. Straus, where the day was spent in resting for this week's ordeal. Tonight the candidate dined at the home of Hermann Ridder, treasurer of the national committee.

Tomorrow morning early Mr. Bryan will go to Paterson, N. J., in fulfillment of a pledge made last week to make a speech there. At the conclusion of the meeting he will return again to New York City.

Mr. Bryan declared tonight that with the exception of being very tired he was feeling well.

"I am finishing the campaign better than I ever have," he said. "My voice has stood the strain well and I don't think that I have lost weight."

Mr. Bryan said that some of the forecasts he had seen in the morning papers today did not agree with the reports that he had been receiving.

"How do things look, Mr. Bryan," he was asked.

"Very favoring," was the reply.

"What do you think of Indiana?"

"We had very enthusiastic meetings there and also in Ohio. The prospects in both states are very bright."

Mr. Bryan said that all the straw ballots that had been taken in the country show democratic gains, "but," he continued, "of course the accuracy of the straw ballots depend upon the way it is taken and the way the names are selected. You select a list of names to which to send postal cards, you receive many answers, but you have no way of finding out how the men who did not answer are going to vote. The trouble comes when you try to average the votes of the ones who have not responded with the votes of those who have responded."

"Where have the democratic gains been this year in comparison with other years?" the candidate was asked.

"This year the democrats have gained in every state. Heretofore we have made gains in some states and have lost in other states. This year there are gains throughout the whole country and gains in every occupation. There are gains among the farmers. These gains are very marked. There are gains among business men, professional and especially among college men. That is the interesting point in this campaign as compared with the other campaigns that I have had anything to do with."

"What is the reason for this gain?" he was asked.

"Only one," replied Mr. Bryan. "I think it is that the republican party, in power for twelve years, has failed to meet the responsibilities."

Mr. Bryan said the poll in New York City, the largest city in the country, and the poll in Iowa, probably the largest agricultural state, showed that the democratic gains were substantially the same. In New York state and city, the reports showed 50 per cent gains and in Iowa about the same.

FORECAST FAVORS DEMOCRATS

New York, Oct. 25.—The first line of the head of the Herald's forecast, stating that there may be a landslide, said Norman E. Mack, democratic national chairman, "is correct, and I am surprised that the canvassers have not paid more attention to it. So far as Mr. Taft getting 280 electoral votes is concerned, that is out of the question. Mr. Bryan is going to be elected."

Washington, Oct. 25.—Democrats and republicans mingled today and discussed the political situation at Washington newsstands, where they went for the Herald and its election forecast. The result of the canvass was eagerly scanned at the White House.

There was unusual interest in the summary today because of the feeling that New York is a big factor in the result and the elaborate canvass which has been conducted to determine how the Empire state voters feel. While the estimate of the Taft strength was not in all cases strong enough to suit his active partisans, it was conceded in most quarters to be a fair and conservative statement of the conditions which obtain today.

MORE ARRESTS MADE.

Camp Nemo, Reelfoot Lake, Tenn., Oct. 25.—Forty-four more prisoners, including two women, were brought in today, as a result of the killing at Walnut Log last week of Capt. Rankin by masked night riders. In addition, seven others, including one woman, were arrested by the troops but were paroled. Among those arrested are William Pratt, hotel keeper at Samburg, and well known; J. D. F. Carpenter, Union City attorney, whom Col. Taylor charges wrote letters to Taylor and Rankin which were instrumental in carrying them on the fatal trip to Walnut Log; William Brewer, a 60-year-old farmer, his wife and son. No charges against any of the arrested ones have been made public.

Aside from the arrests, the day passed quietly, with the troops in the disturbed region.

HASKELL IS COMING

Everybody who can should join the reception committee Tuesday morning and go to Stratford to meet the governor, who speaks there before he comes to Ada. If you can't do this, do not fail to get close to the chief when he arrives, for he is the warmest and the most attractive speaker that ever visited our city. He always tells you something, and since the opportunity to hear a real governor, comes to us very seldom, every man, woman and child in Ada should take part in the reception upon his arrival.

Should the weather command a shelter for the immense throng who will greet the governor, the Adonians will be used, but should the weather permit, seats and platform will be erected at some convenient point on the street.

The band will accompany the committee to Stratford, and when this, the best band in Oklahoma, heads the parade from the Oklahoma Central crossing upon the arrival of the chief executive, there will be great doings in progress.

The Bryan-Kern club will meet tonight to perfect arrangements for the reception, etc., and a full attendance of democrats is urged by Chairman Elvey of the club.

The train leaves for Stratford at 10:32, and you should be ready by ten o'clock to take the cab for the crossing.

Meet the Governor.

Let every one who can join the band down to Stratford tomorrow morning and return with the governor on the special train.

Chairman Joe Thompson invites

all to meet the governor at Stratford and take the special train back.

Chief Justice Bob and Associate Justice Sam.

All who wouldn't mind joining the crowd going down to meet the governor, phone or call on Chairman Elvey of the reception committee. Besides the governor, there will be several distinguished Oklahomans in the party, some of whom include the more important state officers. It is stated that Chief Justice Bob Williams and Associate Justice Sam Hays will be along. Let everyone help make tomorrow a gala day for democracy.

Dismiss School.

The school directors and the superintendent of city schools have been requested by the committee an arrangement to so arrange the school session tomorrow so as to permit all the school children to hear the governor.

The presence of Ada's 1200 school children might remind the governor that Ada is a candidate for a state normal.

Notice.

All the old Confederate Veterans in Ada and who will be in from the country tomorrow on the occasion of the governor's address, are requested to meet at the Confederate Veterans' hall on Broadway at 4 o'clock when they will prepare to march in a body to meet the governor, by the order of the commandant.

Haskell Day.

The Haskell Day committees are very desirous that Judge West, if he deems it consistent, adjourn court tomorrow that all may go to meet the governor.

ENDS IN A WHIRL

New York, Oct. 25.—The political campaign, which is about to center upon its last week, is to have a real whirlwind finish. From the highest to the lowest, all the spellbinders of all the parties will be out in force during the next six days and wavering voters will be urged by eloquent advocates of the several causes to cast their ballots "right."

Real Fight in New York.

In practically every state of the union rallies and mass meetings almost without number have been arranged, but it is in New York, with its large number of electoral votes at stake, that the real battle will be waged. There practically all the leading candidates will concentrate their efforts, ably assisted by a large number of the country's most forceful and resourceful campaigners.

To Ohio for Mr. Taft.

Ohio and Indiana will be given attention, particularly by the leading parties. Among the speakers who will urge the voters of Ohio to vote for Mr. Taft will be several members of President Roosevelt's cabinet. Secretaries Root and Garfield, Postmaster General Meyer and the presidential candidate himself will deliver two formal addresses in Cleveland and Youngstown tomorrow. Vice President Fairbanks will head the republican forces in Indiana, which will include Senators Beveridge and Hemenway, Edward H. Ozman, Consul General of the United States at Constantinople, John L. Griffin, Consul at Liverpool and Representative Gardner of Michigan.

William J. Bryan, after four days in New York state, will close his long, hard campaign by a series of speeches in Ohio, Illinois and Indiana.

Big Ones in New York.

Both Mr. Taft and Mr. Bryan were in this city tonight. All the forces the democratic national committee can summon will be brought to bear to secure the electoral vote of New York state for Bryan. Led by the presidential candidate himself, an army of speakers will be sent into every county and town to spread democratic doctrine and appeal for votes for the ticket. Mr. Bryan went to the cities and towns in the southern tier yesterday, and after a two days' campaign in the Greater City he will stump cities and towns fringing the east shore of the Hudson river, which are seldom visited by democratic candidates in search of support.

Plan Democratic Rallies.

The democratic campaign in the state, it is planned by the party managers, will receive its impetus from the meetings here tomorrow night at Madison Square Garden and in Brooklyn Tuesday. Besides these meetings, many others, at which Mr. Bryan will speak, have been arranged in different parts of the city. Tammany Hall has planned to make the Madison Square Garden meeting the greatest demonstration given the candidate in this campaign, and red fire will burn, bands will play and every assembly district on Manhattan Island will be lively tomorrow night. Tomorrow morning Mr. Bryan will visit cities and towns in the near vicinity of New York, after a flying visit to Paterson, N. Y. Tuesday will be spent in Brooklyn and Wednesday he will turn to the up-state counties.

Following a meeting in Syracuse Thursday night Mr. Bryan will leave the Empire state to devote the closing days of the campaign to Ohio, Indiana and Illinois. Meanwhile all the prominent campaigners the state and national committee can enlist have been sent to the sixty-one counties of this state and to the doubtful states of the Middle West.

Prominent Speakers.

Among the leading speakers in New York state for the week will be former Judge Alton B. Parker, John Sharp Williams, Senator Bacon of Georgia, Gov. Hoke Smith of Georgia, Gov. Ansel of South Carolina, Gov. J. H. Higgins of Rhode Island.

The republican wind-up of the campaign in New York calls for twenty-two mass meetings, to be addressed by speakers of national reputation, a parade of the republican clubs of Greater New York and a big parade of the business men's association.

The big republican event of the week will be the Madison Square Garden meeting Wednesday night, at which Mr. Taft and Gov. Hughes will be the principal speakers. The other speakers will be Senator William Alden Smith of Michigan, Geo. A. Knight of California and United States Assistant District Attorney Atwood of Chicago. Gen. Horace Porter will preside. Mr. Taft and Gov. Hughes will also address four noonday meetings on Wednesday.

GINNERS REFUSED DEMAND.

Arkansas Intimidators Tensed and They Desist.

Little Rock, Ark., Oct. 25.—A special to the Gazette from Charleston, Ark., says:

According to the reports received here today, the owner of a cotton gin at Branch was ordered yesterday to close down by several men who walked into the gin unannounced and in broad daylight. Four miles north of Branch, Pondergrass and Watson were ordered to close their gins, but the ginners absolutely refused to obey.

They were so firm in their notions of running the gins despite the "night riders," or "day walkers" or whatever the men call themselves, that they afterwards received messages that they could continue running their gins. The ginners who, it is alleged, were ordered to close down say the messengers gained the night riders nothing, as they had not stopped and did not intend to stop their gins at their order.

Other places near here report visits of men to the gins. They made no attempt to conceal their identity.

Democrats Meet Tonight.

For the purpose of arranging for the reception and address of Gov. Haskell on Tuesday afternoon, the democrats are urged to meet at the court room tonight. Do not ignore this call, for you are needed.

Many thanks for your handsome compliment

The cotton crop in this section is considerably shorter than anticipated consequently it is important to take your cotton to the market where the highest price can be realized. This is Ada, of course, because there are several buyers to compete, both local and foreign, while the compress is here, thereby saving the additional freight and handling to bring the cotton here to be compressed.

PONTOTOC NIGHT-RIDERLESS.

Is it not enough to live under the vicissitudes of a panic, a flood, indifferent crops, a republican national administration without having to go nup against the night riders? However this little fulmination is not belched on account of any fear of night riders in Pontotoc county.

For the farmers of Pontotoc are intelligent enough to understand that this night riders is the result of the connivance of cotton stock gamblers and jobbers, prompted in order to destroy the market and bring reproach on the farmers union organization.

The Texas woman who broke a stove lid over her husband's head probably figured that he needed a new lid anyway but let us hope that this style will not become fashionable.—Beaumont Enterprise.

No doubt that Texas woman figured just right about it. There are a good many husbands who might be made better by the same treatment.—Port Worth Star.

They might be made better but they certainly would be less trouble-ome.—Denison Herald.

San Angelo Standard: The wool growers of Ohio are getting but 20c for their product this year, as against 30c last year. This is a sample of republican prosperity that they are not able to appreciate, and they are going to vote for Bryan and help change things.

You don't notice any such difference when you go to buy a suit of woolen underwear, do you? It was the Ohio wool growers in convention assembled who demanded, not long ago, to be released by law from the strangle hold which the woolen manufacturers' combine held upon them. They have not been released; they will never get release as long as standpatry usurps the place of statesmanship.—Dallas News.

OUR DISTRICT COURT

The important, special term of the Pontotoc county district court opened this morning with his honor, Judge West, presiding.

Judge West, being notably popular in this county, and all remembering this morning that since he was previously here, long continued and almost critical illness had afflicted him, there was plainly evident at the court opening among attorneys, attending jurors, witnesses and spectators, a friendly regard for the fact that Judge West was again in good health and on his resumption of the bench in this county was possessed of his past uniform, tactful, courteous and pleasant disposition and attention to the business which was coming before him.

When the grand jury was called this morning, an unusual number of the panel were present. Prof. H. D. Rives of Frisco, was excused on account of being engaged in teaching. G. D. Patterson of Alton was excused on account of illness of wife. Messrs. Cobb and Mays, prominent farmers and cattlemen of south Pontotoc, plead vigorously with the court to relieve them from jury service on account of the importance of their business. One of these gentlemen had 500 cattle running around loose, of which about 25 were pestered with screw worms. The other gentleman was in about as bad fix and had arranged to make a shipment to market within a few days.

It was plainly evident that the court wanted to excuse both of these gentlemen, but it appeared that he was very loath to lose such good timber from the jury list and therefore, excused one on the agreement that he would look after the other's interests while he remained in court in behalf of his country. The Messrs. Gillespie, Lillard and Sutton were transferred from the grand jury panel to the petit jury panel. Uncle Pless Roberts of Beebe, was appointed foreman of jury, after which the veteran district clerk, W. C. Cox, with his accustomed impressiveness, swore in the foreman and the jury.

The judge's charge to the jury was interesting. He stated in substance: "Wherein it is the law that criminal offences through information issued by the county attorney, still since we have for a long time been governed by the grand jury system, and since it is within your prerogative, I desire that you vigorously examine into all alleged law infringements. You may understand, however, that this recommendation means no encouragement for continued session, for we want to economize as possible, in all required court expenditures." The court further stated, in substance: "It is this court's desire to render full justice and on no account to be a party to the punishment of an innocent defendant, and we would prefer that the grand jury and the petit jury be so regardful; however, it is true that very few innocent men indeed are ever punished through process of court under our jurisdiction."

"I am very glad to state that I am informed that through the diligence of your county officers, especially your county attorney, you have about stamped out the sale of intoxicating liquors in this county. Though it is desired that you look into any information that may come into your hands in regard to the sale of intoxicating liquors, still I would say to you that considering the diligence of your local officers and the general prohibition enforcement in this county, that you should by no means resolve yourselves into a detective agency in pursuit of violators of the prohibition law."

The court remarked that it was his duty made so by the statute, to also call the jury's attention to the crime of gambling. Said he in substance:

"I do not know whether this county is infested with gamblers. It is usually difficult to successfully intercept those engaged in gambling, for they usually seek private and out-of-the-way places, and walk with a short tread, being careful always to keep the curtains down low, that is," said the judge, "I have heard that this is the manner and method of the conduct of the gamblers, of course I do not really know." If there were any covert smiles when the judge had concluded his gambling charge, the reporter declares that such was not visible to the naked eye.

The court in very delicate, but positive manner, told the jury that it was the duty and ambition of every good citizen of the county to see that the laws were enforced. Said he in substance: "You need the best citizenship to prevail. You want to know when you leave your home and your property that on your return it will be intact and unmolested. It is your duty as good citizens and jurors to especially conduct your examination and inquiries so as to guarantee the maximum law enforcement against any proposition which would endanger the homes and property interests of our country."

One might have suspected that the court had in his mind some of these night rider tales afloat over the country, but thank God it is sincerely believed that no such anarchists and brain storms afflict his country.

The court charged further in substance: "It is your duty to become informed whether or not it appears that all the officers of your county are doing their full duty. You should take care that there should be no malfeasance in office. The business of your county should be transacted honorably and economically; therefore, I charge you to unhesitatingly examine into the conduct of your county officials."

The following names are those composing the petit jury and the grand jury lists:

JUDGE I. A. BURRIS.

Prominent Pontotoc County Citizen, a Friend to the News and W. J. Bryan, Both of Which Are Essential to Pure and Unadulterated Democracy.

Judge I. A. Burris, prominent Chickasaw citizen, of this county, from near Stratford, was a pleasant visitor at the News sanctum this morning. The judge advanced his subscription to 1910 and subscribed to the Bryan-Kern dollar fund. He is greatly interested in the outcome of the presidential contest and has about concluded that Bryan will be elected.

Judge Burris pleasantly stated that he was amused when reading in the special edition of the News, the Indian origin of Pontotoc county. He stated that the white man made the word Pontotoc out of the Indian word he could not pronounce, Pon-ta-to and that Pon-ta-to did by no means indicate a resting or a meeting place, that it meant rains and tall weeds that grew in low and marshy places of which there were a great many in old Pontotoc county, Mississippi.

TO PRINT AN INDIAN'S POEMS.

Muskogee, Ok., Oct. 25.—Mrs. Posey, widow of Alexander Posey, the Indian writer and poet, has collected the poems written by her husband and about Christmas she will issue them in book form. The book is now in the hands of the printer.

Mr. Posey's writings in verse and prose attracted wide attention. He was the only Creek who ever attained literary fame. He dealt principally with Indian themes and the letters that he wrote were in test portrayal of Indian characteristics and philosophy ever written. Mrs. Posey will collect and publish all of the prose writings of her husband later. Mr. Posey was drowned in the Canadian river last May.

REFLECTIONS OF A BACHELOR.

A useful thing in an argument is to have a voice that can yell the loudest.

The only satisfactory excuse a man can make to his wife for coming home late at night is not to do it. Even if there is a vacuum in his head a person can get a fair reputation for being a thinker by holding his tongue.

A girl can nearly always get a man to marry her by making him think she's pretty near ready to marry somebody else.

Cough Caution

Never, positively never poison your lungs. If you cough—even from a simple cold only—you should always treat, soothe, and ease the irritated bronchial tubes. Don't blindly suppress it with a stupefying poison. It's strange how some things finally come about. For twenty years Dr. Shoop has constantly warned people not to take cough mixtures or prescriptions containing Opium, Chloroform, or similar poisons. And now—a little late though—Congress says "Put it on the label, if poisons are in your Cough Mixture." Good! Very good! Hereafter for thirty years more, mothers and others, should insist on having Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. No poison marks on Dr. Shoop's label—and none in the medicine, else it must by law be on the label. And it's not only safe, but it is said to be by those that know it best, a truly remarkable cough remedy. Take to change them, particularly with your children. Insist on having Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. Compare carefully the Dr. Shoop package with others and note the difference. No poison marks there! You can always be on the safe side by demanding

TO DEMOCRATS IMPORTANT

To the Democratic Executive Committee, Pontotoc County:

You are requested that each of you get together the trusted democrats of your precinct for the purpose of devising methods for getting out a full democratic vote on election day. Recognizing the utter futility of attempting to secure a meeting of the committee of this county on such short notice, I have availed myself of the courtesy of the daily press of the city to issue this appeal to each one of you to take up this matter in your own voting precincts and do all you can to get a full democratic vote out on Nov. 3. It is important that you do your full duty to your party in this matter.

You will please send the vote of your precinct to me by wire or phone if possible as soon as counted. I trust all democrats will lend their aid to the good work.

Sincerely, Yours,
GEO. THOMPSON,
Chairman Pontotoc County Democratic Executive Committee.

J. W. Collins Preaches.

Rev J. W. Collins, a good preacher, as well as a good business man, filled two pulpits in the city Sunday. In the morning at the Second church, and in the evening at the First Baptist church. We cannot say much about his first sermon, for we were not present, but concerning the message in the evening on this side, words of praise can only be said. His theme was "The Perils of the Church in This Generation." The three perils discussed at length were: The filling of the churches with unsaved people, caused by sensational preaching, the lack of doctrinal preaching, and the lack of church discipline.

The congregation was reasonably large, and the hearing splendid. In the introduction, the preacher expressed his interest in the Ada church, and told that he drove the first stake which marked the lot where the church now stands, that he planned the house and helped build it. Why not the interest?

A number of paragraphs on the daily papers are commencing to ask what the women have done with their hips. We should think that there would be plenty of room on the top shelf of the closet where they could be left until needed again—Ardmoreite.

SENSATIONAL CHARGES MADE

Guthrie, Okla., Oct. 24—The political sensation of the Oklahoma campaign was sprung today by Governor Haskell when, in a speech here, he exhibited the affidavit of T. E. Smith, a wealthy Ponca City cattleman, who swore that Congressman McGulre, the republican candidate for re-election, had been paid $3,000 for securing a reduction of the taxes of Smith and other cattlemen, and that he had received $1,800 for lobbying in the territorial legislature to prevent the removal of the quarantine line.

It is thought, that beyond doubt, this disclosure will defeat McGulre, who already has about all the fight on his hands he can handle.

In the audience were Chairman Norris and Secretary House, of the republican state committee. The governor fearlessly flayed the committee, calling House a liar and attacking the committee for its dishonest methods of campaigning. Frank Greer was also in the crowd and the governor turned his batteries on him, telling of his depravity in connection with the territorial printing. He also attacked Judge Burford.

Haskell and party left tonight for Oklahoma City, leaving there tomorrow for Eldorado, to make a special tour across the state.

BRYAN IS HOPEFUL

New York, Oct. 25.—After a week of hard campaigning, William J. Bryan, democratic candidate for president, rested today in this city. The candidate had breakfast in his private car as it was dashing through New Jersey and arrived at 9:15 a. m., at Jersey City, where he was met by National Chairman Mack and Nathaniel Straus.

Almost immediately the party crossed the ferry to New York and Mr. Bryan was driven to the residence of Mr. Straus, where the day was spent in resting for this week's ordeal. Tonight the candidate dined at the home of Hermann Ridder, treasurer of the national committee.

Tomorrow morning early Mr. Bryan will go to Paterson, N. J., in fulfillment of a pledge made last week to make a speech there. At the conclusion of the meeting he will return again to New York City.

Mr. Bryan declared tonight that with the exception of being very tired he was feeling well.

"I am finishing the campaign better than I ever have," he said. "My voice has stood the strain well and I don't think that I have lost weight."

Mr. Bryan said that some of the forecasts he had seen in the morning papers today did not agree with the reports that he had been receiving.

"How do things look, Mr. Bryan?" he was asked.

"Very favoring," was the reply.

"What do you think of Indiana?"

"We had very enthusiastic meetings there and also in Ohio. The prospects in both states are very bright."

Mr. Bryan said that all the straw

ballots that had been taken in the country show democratic gains, "but," he continued, "of course the accuracy of the straw ballots depend upon the way it is taken and the way the names are selected. You select a list of names to which to send postal cards, you receive many answers, but you have no way of finding out how the men who did not answer are going to vote. The trouble comes when you try to average the votes of the ones who have not responded with the votes of those who have responded."

"Where have the democratic gains been this year in comparison with other years?" the candidate was asked.

"This year the democrats have gained in every state. Heretofore we have made gains in some states and have lost in other states. This year there are gains throughout the whole country and gains in every occupation. There are gains among the farmers. These gains are very marked. There are gains among business men, professional and especially among college men. That is the interesting point in this campaign as compared with the other campaigns that I have had anything to do with."

"What is the reason for this gain?" he was asked.

"Only one," replied Mr. Bryan. "I think it is that the republican party, in power for twelve years, has failed to meet the responsibilities."

Mr. Bryan said the poll in New York City, the largest city in the country, and the poll in Iowa, probably the largest agricultural state, showed that the democratic gains were substantially the same. In New York state and city, the reports showed 50 per cent gains and in Iowa about the same.

FORECAST FAVORS DEMOCRATS

New York, Oct. 25.—"The first line of the head of the Herald's forecast, stating that there may be a landslide," said Norman E. Mack, democratic national chairman, "is correct, and I am surprised that the canvassers have not paid more attention to it. So far as Mr. Taft getting 250 electoral votes is concerned, that is out of the question. Mr. Bryan is going to be elected."

Washington, Oct. 25.—Democrats and republicans mingled today and discussed the political situation at Washington newsstands, where they went for the Herald and its election forecast. The result of the canvass was eagerly scanned at the White House.

There was unusual interest in the summary today because of the feeling that New York is a big factor in the result and the elaborate canvass which has been conducted to determine how the Empire state voters feel. While the estimate of the Taft strength was not in all cases strong enough to suit his active partisans, it was conceded in most quarters to be a fair and conservative statement of the conditions which obtain today.

MORE ARRESTS MADE.

Camp Nemo, Reelfoot Lake, Tenn., Oct. 25.—Forty-four more prisoners, including two women, were brought in today, as a result of the killing at Walnut Log last week of Capt. Rankin by masked night riders. In addition, seven others, including one woman, were arrested by the troops but were paroled. Among those arrested are William Pratt, hotel keeper at Samburg, and well known J. D. F. Carpenter, Union City attorney, whom Col. Taylor charges wrote letters to Taylor and Rankin which were instrumental in carrying them on the fatal trip to Walnut Log; William Brewer, a 60-year-old farmer, his wife and son. No charges against any of the arrested ones have been made public.

Aside from the arrests, the day passed quietly, with the troops in the disturbed region.

HASKELL IS COMING

Everybody who can should join the reception committee Tuesday morning and go to Stratford to meet the governor, who speaks there before he comes to Ada. If you can't do this, do not fail to get close to the chief when he arrives, for he is the warmest and the most attractive speaker that ever visited our city. He always tells you something and since the opportunity to hear a real governor, comes to us very seldom, every man, woman and child in Ada should take part in the reception upon his arrival.

Should the weather command a shelter for the immense throng who will greet the governor, the Aidome will be used, but should the weather permit, seats and platform will be erected at some convenient point on the street.

The band will accompany the committee to Stratford, and when this, the best band in Oklahoma, heads the parade from the Oklahoma Central crossing upon the arrival of the chief executive, there will be great doings in progress.

The Bryan-Kern club will meet tonight to perfect arrangements for the reception, etc and a full attendance of democrats is urged by Chairman Ehey of the club.

The train leaves Stratford at 10:32, and you should be ready by ten o'clock to take the cab for the crossing.

Meet the Governor.

Let every one who can join the band down to Stratford tomorrow morning and return with the governor on the special train.

Chairman Joe Thompson invites

all to meet the governor at Stratford and take the special train back.

Chief Justice Bob and Associate Justice Sam.

All who wouldn't mind joining the crowd going down to meet the governor, phone or call on Chairman Ehey of the reception committee. Besides the governor, there will be several distinguished Oklahomans in the party, some of whom include the more important state officers. It is stated that Chief Justice Bob Williams and Associate Justice Sam Hays will be along. Let everyone help make tomorrow a gala day for democracy.

Dismiss School.

The school directors and the superintendent of city schools have been requested by the committee an arrangement to so arrange the school session tomorrow so as to permit all the school children to hear the governor.

The presence of Ada's 1200 school children might remind the governor that Ada is a candidate for a state normal.

Notice.

All the old Confederate Veterans in Ada and who will be in from the country tomorrow on the occasion of the governor's address, are requested to meet at the Confederate Veterans' hall on Broadway at 4 o'clock when they will prepare to march in a body to meet the governor. By the order of the commandant.

Haskell Day.

The Haskell Day committees are very desirous that Judge West, if he deems it consistent, adjourn court tomorrow that all may go to meet the governor.

ENDS IN A WHIRL

New York, Oct. 25.—The political campaign, which is about to center upon its last week, is to have a real whirlwind finish. From the highest to the lowest, all the spellbinders of all the parties will be out in force during the next six days and wavering voters will be urged by eloquent advocates of the several causes to cast their ballots "right."

Real Fight in New York.

In practically every state of the union rallies and mass meetings almost without number have been arranged, but it is in New York, with its large number of electoral votes at stake, that the real battle will be waged. There practically all the leading candidates will concentrate their efforts, ably assisted by a large number of the country's most forceful and resourceful campaigners.

To Ohio for Mr. Taft.

Ohio and Indiana will be given attention, particularly by the leading parties. Among the speakers who will urge the voters of Ohio to vote for Mr. Taft will be several members of President Roosevelt's cabinet: Secretaries Root and Garfield, Postmaster General Meyer and the presidential candidate himself will deliver two formal addresses in Cleveland and Youngstown tomorrow. Vice President Fairbanks will head the republican forces in Indiana, which will include Senators Beveridge and Hemenway, Edward H. O'Connor, Consul General of the United States at Constantinople, John L. Griffin, Consul at Liverpool and Representative Gardner of Michigan.

William J. Bryan, after four days in New York state, will close his long, hard campaign by a series of speeches in Ohio, Illinois and Indiana.

Big Ones in New York.

Both Mr. Taft and Mr. Bryan were in this city tonight. All the forces the democratic national committee can summon will be brought to bear to secure the electoral vote of New York state for Bryan. Led by the presidential candidate himself, an army of speakers will be sent into every county and town to spread democratic doctrine and appeal for votes for the ticket. Mr. Bryan went to the cities and towns in the southern tier yesterday, and after a two days' campaign in the Greater City he will stamp cities and towns fringing the east shore of the Hudson river, which are seldom visited by democratic candidates in search of support.

Plan Democratic Rallies.

The democratic campaign in the state, it is planned by the party managers, will receive its impetus from the meetings here tomorrow night at Madison Square Garden and in Brooklyn Tuesday. Besides these meetings, many others, at which Mr. Bryan will speak, have been arranged in different parts of the city. Tammany Hall has planned to make the Madison Square Garden meeting the greatest demonstration given the candidate in this campaign, and red fire will burn, bands will play and every assembly district on Manhattan Island will be lively tomorrow night. Tomorrow morning Mr. Bryan will visit cities and towns in the near vicinity of New York, after a flying visit to Paterson, N. Y. Tuesday will be spent in Brooklyn and Wednesday he will turn to the up-state counties.

Following a meeting in Syracuse Thursday night Mr. Bryan will leave the Empire state to devote the closing days of the campaign to Ohio, Indiana and Illinois. Meanwhile all the prominent campaigners the state and national committee can enlist have been sent to the sixty-one counties of this state and to the doubtful states of the Middle West.

Prominent Speakers.

Among the leading speakers in New York state for the week will be former Judge Alton B. Parker, John Sharp Williams, Senator Bacon of Georgia, Gov. Hoke Smith of Georgia, Gov. Ansel of South Carolina, Gov. J. H. Higgins of Rhode Island.

The republican wind-up of the campaign in New York calls for twenty-two mass meetings, to be addressed by speakers of national reputation, a parade of the republican clubs of Greater New York and a big parade of the business men's association.

The big republican event of the week will be the Madison Square Garden meeting Wednesday night, at which Mr. Taft and Gov. Hughes will be the principal speakers. The other speakers will be Senator William Alden Smith of Michigan, Geo. A. Knight of California and United States Assistant District Attorney Atwood of Chicago. Gen. Horace Porter will preside. Mr. Taft and Gov. Hughes will also address four noonday meetings on Wednesday.

GINNERS REFUSED DEMAND.

Arkansas Intimidators Ignored and They Desist.

Little Rock, Ark., Oct. 25.—A special to the Gazette from Charleston, Ark., says:

According to the reports received here today, the owner of a cotton gin at Branch was ordered yesterday to close down by several men who walked into the gin unmasked and in broad daylight. Four miles north of Branch, Pendergrass and Watson were ordered to close their gins, but the ginners absolutely refused to obey.

They were so firm in their notions of running the gins despite the "night riders" or "day walkers" or whatever the men call themselves that they afterwards received messages that they could continue running their gins. The ginners who, it is alleged, were ordered to close down said the messengers gained the night riders nothing, as they had not stopped and did not intend to stop their gins at their order.

Other places near here report visits of men to the gins. They made no attempt to conceal their identity.

Democrats Meet Tonight.

For the purpose of arranging for the reception and address of Gov. Haskell on Tuesday afternoon the democrats are urged to meet at the court room tonight. Do not ignore this call, for you are needed.

The special edition of the Ada News, gotten out two weeks ago, was the best special edition that we have yet seen come from a newspaper office in Oklahoma. It was certainly a credit to the News people and to Ada, and if judiciously circulated will be worth much to that town.—Havila Herald.

Many thanks for your handsome compliment.

The cotton crop in this section is considerably shorter than anticipated consequently it is important to take your cotton to the market where the highest price can be realized. This is Ada, of course, because there are several buyers to compete, both local and foreign, while the compress is here, thereby saving the additional freight and handling to bring the cotton here to be compressed.

PONTOTOC NIGHT-RIDERLESS.

Is it not enough to live under the vicissitudes of a panic, a flood, indifferent crops, a republican national administration without having to go nup against the night riders? However this little fulmination is not belched on account of any fear of night riders in Pontotoc county.

For the farmers of Pontotoc are intelligent enough to understand that this night riderism is the result of the connivance of cotton stock gamblers and jobbers, prompted in order to destroy the market and bring reproach on the farmers union organization.

The Texas woman who broke a stove lid over her husband's head probably figured that he needed a new lid anyway but let us hope that this style will not become fashionable.—Beaumont Enterprise.

No doubt that Texas woman figured just right about it. There are a good many husbands who might be made better by the same treatment.—Fort Worth Star.

They might be made better but they certainly would be less troublesome.—Denison Herald.

San Angelo Standard: The wool growers of Ohio are getting but 20c for their product this year, as against 30c last year. This is a sample of republican prosperity that they are not able to appreciate, and they are going to vote for Bryan and help change things.

You don't notice any such difference when you go to buy a suit of woolen underwear, do you? It was the Ohio wool growers in convention assembled who demanded, not long ago, to be released by law from the strangle hold which the woolen manufacturers' combine held upon them. They have not been released; they will never get release as long as standpatism usurps the place of statesmanship.—Dallas News.

OUR DISTRICT COURT

The important, special term of the Pontotoc county district court opened this morning with his honor, Judge West, presiding.

Judge West, being notably popular in this county, and all remembering this morning that since he was previously here, long continued and almost critical illness had afflicted him, there was plainly evident at the court opening among attorneys, attending jurors, witnesses and spectators, a friendly regard for the fact that Judge West was again in good health and on his resumption of the bench in this county was possessed of his past uniform, tactful, courteous and pleasant disposition and attention to the business which was coming before him.

When the grand jury was called this morning, an unusual number of the panel were present. Prof. H. D. Rives of Frisco, was excused on account of being engaged in teaching. G. D. Patterson of Allen was excused on account of illness of wife. Messrs. Cobb and Mays, prominent farmers and cattlemen of south Pontotoc, plead vigorously with the court to relieve them from jury service on account of the importance of their business. One of these gentlemen had 500 cattle running around loose, of which about 30 were pestered with screw worms. The other gentleman was in about as bad fix and had arranged to make a shipment to market within a few days.

It was plainly evident that the court wanted to excuse both of these gentlemen, but it appeared that he was very loath to lose such good timber from the jury list and therefore, excused one on the agreement that he would look after the other's interests while he remained in court in behalf of his country. The Messrs. Gillespie, Lillard and Sutton were transferred from the grand jury panel to the petit jury panel. Uncle Pleas Roberts of Hebe, was appointed foreman of jury, after which the veteran district clerk, W. C. Cox, with his accustomed impressiveness, swore in the foreman and the jury.

The judge's charge to the jury was interesting. He stated in substance: "Wherein it is the law that criminal offenses through information issued by the county attorney, still since we have for a long time been governed by the grand jury system, and since it is within your prerogative, I desire that you vigorously examine into all alleged law infringements. You may understand, however, that this recommendation means no encouragement for continued session, for we want to economize all possible, in all required court expenditures." The court further stated, in substance: "It is this court's desire to render full justice and on no account to be a party to the punishment of an innocent defendant, and we would prefer that the grand jury and the petit jury be so careful; however, it is true that very few innocent men indeed are ever punished through process of court under our jurisdiction."

"I am very glad to state that I am informed that through the diligence of your county officers, especially your county attorney, you have about stamped out the sale of intoxicating liquors in this county. Though it is desired that you look into any information that may come into your hands in regard to the sale of intoxicating liquors, still I would say to you that considering the diligence of your local officers and the general prohibition enforcement in this county, that you should by no means resolve yourselves into a detective agency in pursuit of violators of the prohibition law."

The court remarked that it was his duty made so by the statute, to also call the jury's attention to the crime of gambling. Said he in substance:

"I do not know whether this county is infested with gamblers. It is usually difficult to successfully intercept those engaged in gambling, for they usually seek private and out-of-the-way places, and walk with a short tread, being careful always to keep the curtains down low, that is," said the judge. "I have heard that this is the manner and method of the conduct of the gamblers, of course I do not really know." If there were any covert smiles when the judge had concluded his gambling charge, the reporter declares that such was not visible to the naked eye.

The court in very delicate, but positive manner, told the jury that it was the duty and ambition of every good citizen of the county to see that the laws were enforced. Said he in substance: "You need the best citizenship to prevail. You want to know when you leave your home and your property that on your return it will be intact and unimpaired. It is your duty as good citizens and jurors to especially conduct your examination and inquiries so as to guarantee the maximum law enforcement against any proposition which would endanger the homes and property interests of our country."

One might have suspected that the court had in his mind some of these night rider tales float over the country, but thank God it is sincerely believed that no such anarchists and brain storms afflict his country.

The court charged further in substance: "It is your duty to become informed whether or not it appears that all the officers of your county are doing their full duty. You should take care that there should be no malfeasance in office. The business of your county should be transacted honorably and economically; therefore, I charge you to unhesitatingly examine into the conduct of your county officials."

The following names are those composing the petit jury and the grand jury lists:

JUDGE I. A. BURRIS.

Prominent Pontotoc County Citizen, a Friend to the News and W. J. Bryan, Both of Which Are Essential to Pure and Unadulterated Democracy.

Judge I. A. Burris, prominent Chickasaw citizen, of this county, from near Stratford, was a pleasant visitor at the News sanctum this morning. The judge advanced his subscription to 1910 and subscribed to the Bryan-Kern dollar fund. He is greatly interested in the outcome of the presidential contest and has about concluded that Bryan will be elected.

Judge Burris pleasantly stated that he was amused when reading in the special edition of the News, the Indian origin of Pontotoc county. He stated that the white man made the word Pontotoc out of the Indian word he could not pronounce, Pon-ta-to, and that Pon-ta-to did by no means indicate a resting or a meeting place, that it meant cains and tall weeds that grew in low and marshy places of which there were a great many in old Pontotoc county, Mississippi.

TO PRINT AN INDIAN'S POEMS.

Muskogee, Ok., Oct. 25.—Mrs. Posey, widow of Alexander Posey, the Indian writer and poet, has collected the poems written by her husband and about Christmas she will issue them in book form. The book is now in the hands of the printer.

Mr. Posey's writings in verse and prose attracted wide attention. He was the only Creek who ever attained literary fame. He dealt principally with Indian themes and the letters that he wrote were the best portrayal of Indian characteristics and philosophy ever written. Mrs. Posey will collect and publish all of the prose writings of her husband later. Mr. Posey was drowned in the Canadian river last May.

REFLECTIONS OF A BACHELOR.

A useful thing in an argument is to have a voice that can yell the loudest.

The only satisfactory excuse a man can make to his wife for coming home late at night is not to do it. Even if there is a vacuum in his head a person can get a fair reputation for being a thinker by holding his tongue.

A girl can nearly always get a man to marry her by making him think she's pretty near ready to marry somebody else.

Cough Caution

Never, positively never poison your lungs. If you cough—even from a simple cold only—you should always treat, soothe and ease the irritated bronchial tubes. Don't blindly suppress it with a stupefying poison. It's strange how some things finally come about. For twenty years Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure has constantly warned people not to take cough mixtures or prescriptions containing Opium, Chloroform, or similar poisons. And now—a little late though—Congress says "Put it on the label if poisons are in your Cough Mixture." Good! Very good! Hereafter for this very reason mothers, and others, should insist on having Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. No poison marks on Dr. Shoop's labels—and none in the medicine, else it must by law be on the label. And it's not only safe, but it is said to be by those that know it best, a truly remarkable cough remedy. Take no chance then, particularly with your children. Insist on having Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. Compare carefully the Dr. Shoop package with others and note the difference. No poison marks there! You can always be on the safe side by demanding

TO DEMOCRATS IMPORTANT

To the Democratic Executive Committee, Pontotoc County:

You are requested that each of you get together the trusted democrats of your precinct for the purpose of devising methods for getting out a full democratic vote on election day. Recognizing the utter futility of attempting to secure a meeting of the committee of this county on such short notice, I have availed myself of the courtesy of the daily press of the city to issue this appeal to each one of you to take up this matter in your own voting precincts and do all you can to get a full democratic vote out on Nov. 3. It is important that you do your full duty to your party in this matter.

You will please send the vote of your precinct to me by wire or phone if possible as soon as counted. I trust all democrats will lend their aid to the good work.

Sincerely, Yours,
GEO. THOMPSON,
Chairman Pontotoc County Democratic Executive Committee.
County papers please copy.

J. W. Collins Preaches.

Rev. J. W. Collins, a good preacher, as well as a good business man, filled two pulpits in the city Sunday. In the morning at the Second church, and in the evening at the First Baptist church. We cannot say much about his first sermon, for we were not present, but concerning the message in the evening on this side, words of praise can only be said. His theme was "The Perils of the Church in This Generation." The three perils discussed at length were: The filling of the churches with unsaved people, caused by sensational preaching, the lack of doctrinal preaching, and the lack of church discipline.

The congregation was reasonably large, and the hearing splendid. In the introduction, the preacher expressed his interest in the Ada church, and told that he drove the first stake which marked the lot where the church now stands, that he planned the house and helped build it. Why not the interest?

A number of paragraphs on the daily papers are commencing to ask what the women have done with their hips. We should think that there would be plenty of room on the top shelf of the closet where they could be left until needed again—Ardmoreite.

SENSATIONAL CHARGES MADE

Guthrie, Okla., Oct. 24—The political sensation of the Oklahoma campaign was sprung today by Governor Haskell when, in a speech here, he exhibited the affidavit of T. E. Smith, a wealthy Ponca City cattleman, who swore that Congressman McGuire, the republican candidate for re-election, had been paid $3,000 for securing a reduction of the taxes of Smith and other cattlemen, and that he had received $1,800 for lobbying in the territorial legislature to prevent the removal of the quarantine line.

It is thought, that beyond doubt, this disclosure will defeat McGuire, who already has about all the fight on his hands he can handle.

In the audience were Chairman Norris and Secretary House, of the republican state committee. The governor fearlessly flayed the committee, calling House a liar and attacking the committee for its dishonest methods of campaigning. Frank Greer was also in the crowd and the governor turned his batteries on him, telling of his depravity in connection with the territorial printing. He also attacked Judge Burford.

Haskell and party left tonight for Oklahoma City, leaving there tomorrow for Eldorado, to make a special tour across the state.

BRYAN IS HOPEFUL

New York Oct 26—After a week of hard campaigning William F. Bryan democratic candidate for president rested today in this city. The candidate had breakfast in his private car as it was dashing through New Jersey and arrived at 9 15 a m at Jersey City where he was met by National Chairman Mack and Nathaniel Straus.

Almost immediately the party crossed the ferry to New York and Mr Bryan was driven to the residence of Mr Straus where the day was spent in resting for this week's ordeal. Tonight the candidate dined at the home of Hermann Ridder, treasurer of the national committee. Tomorrow morning early Mr Bryan will go to Paterson N J in fulfillment of a pledge made last week to make a speech there. At the conclusion of the meeting he will return again to New York City.

Mr Bryan declared tonight that with the exception of being very tired he was feeling well.

I am finishing the campaign better than I ever have, he said. My voice has stood the strain well and I don't think that I have lost weight.

Mr Bryan said that some of the forecast he had seen in the morning paper today did not agree with the reports that he had been receiving.

How do things look, Mr Bryan he was asked.

Very favorable, was the reply.

What do you think of Indiana?

We had very enthusiastic meetings there and also in Ohio. The prospects in both states are very bright.

Mr Bryan said that all the straw

ballots that had been taken in the country show democratic gains but he continued of course the accuracy of the straw ballots depend upon the way it is taken and the way the names are selected. You select a list of names to which to send postal cards, you get many answers but you have no way of finding out how the men who did not answer are going to vote. The trouble comes when you try to verify the votes of the ones who have not responded with the votes of those who have responded.

Where have the democratic gains been this year in comparison with other years? the candidate was asked.

This year the democrats have gained in every state. Heretofore we have made gains in some states and have lost in other states. This year there are gains throughout the whole country and gains in every occupation. There are gains among the farmers. These gains are very marked. There are gains among business men, professional men, especially among college men. That is the interesting point in this campaign as compared with the other campaigns. That I have said anything to do with.

What is the reason for this gain? he was asked.

Only one, replied Mr Bryan. I think it is that the public has put in power for twelve years has failed to meet the responsibilities.

Mr Bryan said the poll in New York City the largest city in the country and the poll in Iowa probably the largest agricultural state showed that the democratic gains were substantially the same. In New York state and city the reports showed 60 per cent gains and in Iowa about the same.

FORECAST FAVORS DEMOCRATS

New York Oct 26—The first line of the head of the Herald's forecast stating that there may be a landslide and Norman F. Mack democratic national chairman is correct and I am surprised that the canvas is not paid more attention to it. So far as Mr. Tilt's 250 electoral votes is concerned that is out of the question. Mr. Bryan is going to be elected.

Washington Oct 26—Democrats and republicans mingled today and discussed the political situation at Washington newspapers while they wait for the Herald and its election forecast. In result of the canvas was easily scanned at the White House.

It was unusual interest in the summary told. I cause of the feeling that New York is a big factor in the result and the electoral canvas which has been conducted to determine how the Empire state voters feel. While the estimate of the Tilt strength was not in all cases strong enough to suit his active purposes it was conceded in most quarters to be a fair and conservative statement of the conditions which obtain today.

MORE ARRESTS MADE.

Camp Nemo, Redfoot Lake, Tenn. Oct 26—Four more prisoners including two women were brought in today as a result of the killing at Wilbur Log last week of Cut Rankin. In masked night riders in addition seven others including one woman were arrested by the troops but were paroled. Among those arrested are William Pratt, hotel keeper at Samburg and well known J. D. Carpenter, Union City attorney whom Col Taylor charges wrote letters to Taylor and Rankin which were instrumental in carrying them on the fatal trip to Wilbur Log. William Brown, a 60 year old farmer his wife and son No charges against any of the arrested ones have been made public.

Aside from the arrests the day passed quietly with the troops in the disturbed region.
